

Eighth win for women

HAMPSTEAD Women bagged their eighth win of the season with a five-goal demolition of Garston Reserves in Sunday's Greater London Division Two North match.

Rhi Gladman benefitted from outstanding build up play to open the scoring in the 10th minute with a hard low shot into the bottom corner of the net.

Gladman then turned provider for the second goal 14 minutes later with a through ball to Sheri Ben-Atar, who wrong-footed the keeper to score.

Gladman got her brace in the 61st minute and Hampstead went 4-0 ahead when Char Blackmore netted with a header soon after.

Garston got a goal back in the 75th minute when Hampstead keeper Laura Mifsud smashed a clearance against her own defender and the ball rebounded into the net.

Blackmore bagged her second of the game and Hampstead's fifth when she scored in the 80th minute.

Hampstead Women: Mifsud, Ben-Atar, Trigg, Gray, Roberts, Bard (capt), Gladman, Patel (Freeman), Blackmore, Larson (Carlson), Arnold.
